

Northside TNT Meeting MinutesOctober 24th, 2018*Facilitator Judy Scheuer & Jay SubediAttendees: Gerry Scott, Ed Morris, Kathy Baldwin, Richard Baldwin, Mary Salibrici, Katelyn Wright, Paul Driscoll, Stephen Harris, Ben Lockwood, Lt. Don Shultz, Maureen Dore, Chris Bianchi, Judy Edwards, Donna Schmidt, Ed Andrews, Ed and Rose Morris, Gilda DiCaprio, Lelah Bianchi, Angela Massert

Meeting called to order at 7:05pm

September 26th, 2018 Minutes: Gerry Scott motioned to approve the minutes as written, Mary Salibrici 2nd, all were in favor.Issue for District Representatives/Elected Official/City Departments: Lt. Don Shultz provided a brief crime update. Questions were taken from the floor. A handout was distributed to learn how to track your valuables in case of burglary or fire.Stephen Harris, City Arborist: Mr. Harris provided an update on the City's 'Urban Forest Master Plan'. Currently, within the City boundaries, there are 1.5 million trees. Trees are beneficial for many different reasons; air filter, happiness, water filter, etc. Questions were taken from the floor. For the survey visit: Syrgov.net/parks/forestry.htmlButternut Street Housing Improvements:Katelyn Wright, Executive Director for the Land Bank. Ms. Wright provided a presentation including a brief summary of the Land Bank as well as an overview of the Land Bank's plan to develop affordable housing on Butternut St. Questions were taken from the floor.Ben Lockwood, Executive Director for Housing Visions. Mr. Lockwood provided a presentation on Housing Vision's role in the development of 16 properties, 7 buildings along the Butternut St. corridor. Questions were taken from the floor.Paul Driscoll, Chief Planning and Development Officer with Home Headquarters. Mr. Driscoll provided a presentation regarding the history of HHQ and stated that HHQ's role as a lender in the Butternut St. developments. Questions were taken from the floor.Announcements:

- Save Around coupon book on sale to raise funds for the Northside Christmas Party