

Eastside TNT October 9, 2018 Meeting MinutesFacilitator Ken GarnoAttendees: Beverly Griffin, Sharon Sherman, Captain Kavanagh, Michael Greene, Paul Harvey, Paul G. Brown, Audray Edwards, Alex Ranaldi, Chris Abate, Jose Colon, Dan Stricker, Stephen Waldron, Erika Opgenorth, Glenda Randallo, Jonathan Hood, Jame Traver, M. Scoville, Jane Helmer, Dave Kirby, Joe Atkinson, Sondra Roth, Blake Carter, Joe Driscoll

Meeting began at 7:03pm.

Draft September 11th, 2018 meeting minutes: Sharon Sherman motioned to approve the minutes as written, Michael Greene 2nd, all were in favor.Issues for District Representatives/Elected Officials/City Departments: NoneCaptain Kavanagh: Captain Kavanagh provided a brief history of his time on the police force. A crime report for the Eastside sector was provided. A majority of the burglaries were the result of unlocked doors and window fans being pushed in; lock your car doors, house doors and do not leave anything in your vehicle. Questions were taken from the floor. It was mentioned how the police can join nextdoor.com for every neighborhood as a public agency. Officer Chris Bresett, community police officer for the eastside located on Genesee St., can be reached at 315-901-1288.Julie LaFave, Commissioner of Parks: Ms. LaFave provided an update on improvements that have been made to several Eastside parks. Currently, the Parks Department assists with the Meadowbrook endcaps and is interested in partnering with community members on resident driven projects.TNT City-wide Board Update: Ken Garno, Alternate, stated that the board is establishing a committee to review the bylaws. The lead and census grants from the CNY Community Foundation are likely to be funded; TNT citywide will need assistance with both initiatives.Announcements:'Make Lead History' fundraising event on October 21st at the Palace Theater from 2pm – 8pm, suggested donation of $20.October 22nd – 28th is national lead poisoning awareness week.Beverly motioned to adjourn the meeting at 7:58pm, David Kirby 2nd.