Joe Bennett Facilitator

6:36 Call to order

6:37 Approval of meeting minutes- Bennett not Bennet. Unanimously passed.

6:38 Syracuse Fire Department – Fire Safety Campaign – free smoke detectors are available from the Syracuse Fire Department. See their website to sign up for the free smoke alarms. Installation included.

6:42 Captain Ralph Bowering, Syracuse Police – Crime update provided. Update provided on the incident at the Duck Pond with a dog attack was provided. The call was not coded correctly, therefore police were not dispatched. There was a significant rise in shots fired. Motor vehicle thefts are up as well. Questions were asked and answered.

6:53 Bill Kinne provided an update. Coldbrook Creek will hopefully be dredged this year to alleviate the flooding. According to Councilor Majok, the application for Lees Feed Mill has been rescinded.

6:55 Kathy Stribley – planning committee update – Kathy updated on the Feed Mill. Thanks to all who spoke up regarding the rezoning application.

6:56 Lisa Lambert – Update on special projects. They have all been approved by the Board. The common council is going to be voting on the projects next week.
