Motion to approve meeting minutes 6:36

6:37 Ken Garno – Update on the Deer legislation – Awaiting legislative action to take place.

Deborah Glick, District 66 Environmental Conservation Comm. – Reach out to her office to let her know that you support this.

6:44 Capt. Bowering Syracuse Police Dept. – Violent crimes are relatively good. There has been an uptick in the number of motor vehicle thefts. LOCK YOUR CAR!! Due to the TikTok challenge the number of Kia/Hyundai vehicles being broken into and stolen has gone up. Questions were asked and answered by the community.

6:55 Bob Gardino- Questions were asked of Kevan Busa regarding stop signs, crosswalks, and striping on certain streets. The conversation has been tabled for another meeting.

7:06 Corey Dunham- 96 Gallon carts will be distributed to 20% of the city in June. The rest of the city will receive the carts in September. The purpose of this is to lessen the stress on sanitation workers and make their job safer. No workers will lose their job as this is not a fully automated process. This is semi-automated. Recycling carts will come in 2024. You must use the cart to receive trash service. There will be exceptions made for people in need.

7:21 City as Canvas- Karen Greenfield – update on how we will be voting. Questions were asked and answered by the community.

7:28 Good News – Joan Royal WAC has sponsored Ben Ellis. He is going to be giving a concert at 4pm on Saturday. Art Trail event is June 17th. See Westcott Center website for more. Westcott Fair is currently accepting applications for performers. June 1st booth registration will open. Outer Comstock will be having an area wide yard sale. On August 5th there will be an Art and Garden Festival. ESF cryptkeepers are donating money to restore an old bird bath. Petit Branch at 11am June 3rd, dedication of bricks to lives we have lost. June 18th strings concert at the rose garden.

7:40 Kevan Busa presented up and coming projects for bike paths

7:41 Motion to adjourn
