

Meeting Minutes: September 14, 2022Facilitator: Joe BennettAttendees: Kathy Stribley, Lisa Lambert, Joan Hanlin, George Matthews, Shavel Edwards, Linda Gainer, Captain Bowering, Hon. Chol Majok, Tina Zagya.

Meeting began at 6:35 pm, welcome and introductions commenced. The ground rules were reviewed.

August 10th, 2022 Meeting Minutes: Kathy Stribley motioned to approve the minutes as written, Joan Hanlin seconded, all were in favor.

Issues for District Representatives/City Departments/Elected Officials:

Shavel Edwards, Greater Syracuse Land Bank, provided an update on a few properties. Captain Bowering provided a crime analysis overview. Questions were taken from the floor. Hon. Majok stated that the redistricting map was approved by the council.

Committee Updates: Kathy Stribley, planning committee, stated that there is a planning commission hearing next Monday at 6pm.

Facilitator Nominations: Joe Bennett nominated Lisa Lambert. Lisa Lambert nominated Joe Bennett.

City-wide Update: Tina Zagya stated that the first mural in the City as Canvas series has been completed on the Westside at the Delavan building (509 W. Fayette St.). The second one has been selected for the Downtown TNT on the Jazz Central building (441 E. Washington St.) and the artist has begun painting. The Eastwood artist has been selected for the Palace Theater and will begin soon. Please submit any Valley TNT mural locations to the google form through the TNT website: <http://www.tomorrowsneighborhoodstoday.org/city-as-canvas>

Ms. Zagya stated that there is $8,750 in Special Project funding for capital projects or events as well as an additional $2,000 for public art this fiscal year.

Announcements:

- MAPA board meeting, Wednesday September 21st at 6pm at the Cecile Center.
- Tailgate sale on Saturday, September 24th at Meachem Field Parking area from 9am – 3pm. Email M492.9471@gmail.com
- Meachem's playground is open and Elm's school is back.
- Our Lady of Hope Church will have a Fall Festival, October 1st, 11am – 6pm
- Valley Men's Club fish dinner starting September 30th.

Joe Bennett motioned to adjourn the meeting at 7:34 PM, Lisa Lambert seconded, all were in favor.